

Please do not propose federal legislation to override state laws in regard to telephone privacy legislation. Indiana's law has virtually eliminated unwanted telephone calls from telemarketers and we do not want to see this changed in any way.